No, we live in a society and our freedoms are limited by the lowest common denominator. That's a double edged sword, as many people would like to be tranny murderers and society won't let them, thank society for putting reins on these people and keep your homosexual practices private, your sexuality and fetishes are nobody's business.

Look bruh, we're not afraid of it, we're disgusted by it, big difference. I am fairly Libertarian about what you do in the privacy of your home, but LGBTxyz stopped being about "in the privacy" a long time ago.

Now you're literally having school systems forcefully remove children from their parents if they don't inject them with hormones and mutilate their genitals cause some teacher caught your son playing with a doll.

I am 100% fine with gay and trans people, until they spill out into the streets and demand I play act along with their delusions as some sick part of their fetish. To top it off you've turned being trans into a political position, which means all bets are off. Once your sexuality is a political argument, we can argue against it, simple as.

Let me give you the red pill, and it won't be what you think it is:
Every person has the right to make their own decisions, but they should be informed about the consequences of those decisions.
You want to be a trap or dress in women's clothes, fine, but do not push your agenda on children, who are not of legal age to consent and do not even know what sex or gender is.
They cannot consent to surgery, especially a life altering one.
If you do dress in women's clothes and still have a penis, you should inform a man or woman you are trying to sleep with, otherwise you are lying to them and giving them false hopes that you have an actual working vagina with reproductive organs.
Trans have a higher suicide rate.
The classice defense is that is because trans people are not accepted in society. That is true.
But it could also be because they removed their sex organs and have a giant gaping, sometimes infected and bleeding wound where their dick and balls used to be.
Sometimes it never fully heals and the pain of dilation constantly is too much to bear.
Sometimes even shit leaks out of their "vagina."
It gets to the point where they cannot bear the pain and off themselves.
I am not being insensitive.
I am giving you the dose of reality.

If you are going to be trans, at least keep your penis and be honest with yourselves that you will never be a biological woman.

Not only is fucking hard to watch a tranny that clearly looks like a man, but it opens the door for fake trannies and normalize gender dysphoria when it should be treated.

We have laws base on gender.

Also most trannies are unlikable cunts that support communism.
